

It's that time...
Let's GO!

Thanks to our board retirees!

Brian Flanagan

Teri Bartelt

New board member for 2025/6

Bob Seisennop (Vice President)

- Retired
- Resident of Oconomowoc
- Family: Wife (Amy), Adult Children (Jana & Tim) - Also all pickleball players and members at LCPC!
- Bob has played 50 years of tennis but gave it up completely for pickleball 5-years ago.
- Recently appointed the GM of the Atlanta Braves (bat boys)

New board member for 2026

Stephanie Todd (Communications)

- FAITH, FAMILY, FRIENDS and FUN are the pillars of my life!
- My husband, Greg and I have been married for 38 years and we have three young adult children: Kyra(26), Foster(23) and Jada(20).
- We all play pickleball and it is one of our favorite things to do as a family!
- I am an Educator, Trainer and Veteran
- Hobbies include continual learning and growing, reading, writing and serving others!

The 2026 LCPC Board

Judy Berghoefer (President)

Bob Seisennop (Vice President)

Paul Barbour (Treasurer)

Eric Swanson (Secretary)

Vickie Rock (Membership)

Stephanie Todd (Communications)

Jim Meyer

- Jim was the founding LCPC president and passed away in October 2025 after a long battle with brain cancer
- Our sincere condolences to his wife Sandy (also a club member) and family
- He will be fondly remembered and appreciated for his leadership, warm smile and calm demeanor
- The board is working with the city to create an area with shade tree, benches, etc. at the NEP as a memorial.
- Please consider donating to the club or Friends of Oconomowoc Parks and Trails and designate Jim Meyer Memorial

Our LCPC Vision remains:

To maintain the social, welcoming nature of the LCPC experience

93%

To provide opportunities for members to develop their skills

95%

To expand the local playing capacity to meet growing demands

93%

Community impact

- Free introduction to Pickleball (Saturdays in May)
- Senior center presentations and lessons
 - Play at Westover weekly
- Engage younger community members
 - Arranged school grants and events
 - OHS Pickleball Club
- South Africa paddle and shoe drive for local kids
- Working with Roger BelAir & Pickleball for Incarcerated League (PICL) to introduce Pickleball in Prisons in Wisconsin

Your feedback on our priorities

- Free drills 92%
- King of the Court 71%
- Challenge Courts 54%
- Pro Drills ($) 74%
- Discounted winter play 74%
- Build courts in Lake Country area 37%
- Two in two out format for club times 95%
- Volunteering 90%
- More social activities 22%
- Tournaments 86%

Our volunteers are fantastic!

Join the fun and keep LCPC great!

- Court Coordinators
 - 1 session a month/a season
- Tournament volunteers
 - 2 tournaments all season
- Drill volunteers
 - whenever you can
 - remember when you were a newbie?
- Social media
 - FB updates, picture taking, newsletters

...lots of people make little work!

The biggest issue remains...

“I just want to play with people a bit better than me”

- LCPC is a welcoming club but please be self aware of your level of play....
- Come to drills, play up and down the river, play tournaments and assess yourself!
- Take a lesson/assessment and get a broad idea of level
- We ALL have good and bad days...okay to move down or up based on that!

Our season

2026

Core season

- ▶ Expect play unless wet or wind >15mph

Shoulder season

- ▶ Expect play if 40°F+
- ▶ Use GroupMe
- ▶ No leagues or LCPC drills

Off season

- ▶ Don't expect play unless it is a great day
- ▶ Use GroupMe
